Your Faculty is recommending to the Senate of the University of Southampton that you be awarded the following:

Second Class Honours (Upper Division)

Date of Award: 27 June 2019

Subject to Senate approval, your certificate will be posted to your home address or given to you at your graduation ceremony.*

If you think your marks are incorrect, please contact your student office. These results will also be available to view by selecting the 'My Student Record' icon on your SUSSED account from 16:00 today, Thursday 27 June 2019.

Your module marks may not reflect any submitted Special Considerations outcomes. You can view details of these, along with your component and module marks, on your student record account.

Students wishing to submit an academic appeal on receipt of their ratified marks should use the provisions set down in the Regulations Governing Academic Appeals by Students Please read the grounds of appeal (Section A paragraph 4.0) thoroughly. You can access further information through our webpage. The Students' Union Advice Centre can provide free and independent advice to students in connection with this process.

Best wishes,

Student and Academic Administration

Note that if you have an outstanding tuition-related debt, your award cannot be made until this debt has been settled.
