REFERENCE

Eline Elling has worked in our Language School as a freelance English teacher since March 2009.

During this period Eline taught both individual as well as group classes. Apart from teaching General English to students whose level ranged from beginner to advanced, she also prepared and conducted Business English courses catering to the specific needs of our professional clients either in our school or at their premises.

Eline's commitment to our customers, her responsible behaviour, her professional knowledge and her reliability have always been to a very high standard.

We wish Eline all the best for the future.
