The Bridge Education Group TEFL Online: Advanced Methods in Teaching English Online course is a 60-hour, 5-module online certificate program and the second course in a two-course curriculum. As it is a self-study course, it can be done at the trainee's own pace. This is a reading and viewing-based course on the research-based methodology for teaching English online to adult speakers of other languages with emphasis given to teaching learners living in countries where English is not the dominant language – an English as a foreign language context. The emphasis in the class is based on the practical application of teaching techniques. Upon successful completion of the course, the teacher will be able to teach in the online classroom utilizing effective techniques in building English accuracy and fluency for the students.

Upon successful completion of the TEFL Online: Foundations in Teaching English Online course, students are able to:

1. Explain the difference between English accuracy and fluency.
2. Create online learning tasks that work with different learning styles.
3. Understand and use appropriate error correction in an online classroom.
4. Recognize the key differences in English to special groups of students.

By the end of the course, graduates will have covered the following modules:

1. Preparing for the Online Classroom
2. Learning Styles
3. Online Lesson Plans: Accuracy and Fluency
4. Error Correction
5. Teaching English Online to Special Groups
