To whom it may concern

This is hereby to recommend Mr Davide SORRENTINO, who has applied for a position with your institution. It is a gracious honour to recommend Mr Sorrentino who was employed as a language teacher from 19 December 2017 to 31 May 2018. Mr Sorrentino carried on the responsibility of teaching language to learners which were divided by classes as school pupils, university students, and also adults.

As I was his colleague and supervisor, I observed that he was willing to take new tasks with new challenges to impart instructions and create an excellent environment of each class. What I found to be his best asset was his ability to utilise appropriate language and positive discipline to manage effective interactions with the learners. As a model of appropriate behaviour, he is in a league of his own and can provide extra instructional support based on individual student assessments.

Mr Sorrentino received the very positive feedback from his learners with favourable comments on his teaching. He is an extremely intelligent, innovative, and dedicated teacher. I hence very much believe that he would make an excellent addition to your institution.

If you would like any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely Yours,

Phongthep KHUMPUI
