

Qualification

She has done specialization in French C1 level and presently pursuing masters in French from Calcutta University, moreover she has experience in teaching both English and French till Advanced level

Tools Stack

- Experienced in MS Office Suite
- Experienced in training students for their future avenues, possesses good communication skills

Executive Summary – RINI ROY

- Rini Roy has experience of more than 6 years in teaching background, she has completed her graduation in BBA and other than having expertise knowledge in the domain of Business she also holds experience in the domain of Foreign language
- She has also taught English in a private school of Calcutta and right now teaching French in the Ramakrishna Mission School of Language and Culture, she has experience in teaching students of all ages.
- Training Expertise
She delivers training on French, English and doubt sessions for students. She also conducts practical interview mock sessions where she interacts with students and evaluate the level of clarity the student has in language learning and identify area of improvement.
- Technical Expertise
She is expertised on Ms office Suite, MS Outlook, Google Meet, Project Management and work management softwares such as Asana.
- Experience
 - She has experience in dealing with students and providing them with proper explanations on topics they have doubts
 - She has handled a class of 43 students at NIFT for guiding them towards the fashion industry of France
 - She has been teaching French and English for more than 2 years and she herself holds Professional certifications from reputed institutions for English and French language
 - Other than languages she also have expertise knowledge in Data Analytics and Project Management