To whom it may concern,

This letter will serve as a recommendation for Ana Carolina Afonso Fidalgo. She has been employed as a Portuguese teacher for the students of our school since August, 2021. I am a lecturer at Beijing Sport University, where I have been her colleague as well as department coordinator for almost 2 years. I find her to be consistently pleasant, tackling all assignments with great dedication.

Miss Carolina is a versatile employee. She serves as a foreign teacher in the School of International Sport Organizations, teaching the students Portuguese language with various approaches and has helped them become exposed to both the language and culture. She is very flexible and creative in her teaching style in order to accommodate students of different levels. What's even more impressive is that she incorporates much of her personal experience into his lessons to help his students to relate to what they are learning.

She is keen to learn and develop her teaching skills and is able to evaluate her teaching accurately and respond positively to the feedback from supervisors and peers. She is a good team worker as well.

Miss Carolina is a very dedicated instructor and has received much positive feedback from students and parents. I highly recommend Miss Carolina for employment. I believe she will be a great asset to any organization.

Regards,
