Dear Jinwen

Congratulations on completing your TEFL course!
We hope that you enjoyed it. So, what's next?

Now that you have gained the great skills to Teach English as a Foreign Language what are you going to do with them? There are so many opportunities open to you; sometimes it's hard to know where to begin.

For those of you that are already doing a paid teaching or volunteer project overseas we hope you found the course useful and you are looking forward to your trip.

Qualified TEFL teachers are in great demand throughout the world. At i-to-i we offer meaningful volunteer teaching projects all over the world, as well as an array of worthwhile community development projects, offering brilliant opportunities for you to pass on your valuable skills whilst immersing yourself in the culture of a new country.

Alternatively, we have a range of Paid Teaching projects lasting between 3 and 12 months, offering a salary of up to US$1,600 a month as well as accommodation.

For more information, qualified teacher discounts or to talk about your options regarding these or other placements, visit: www.i-to-i.com or call your regional office and speak to one of our Specialist Travel Advisors.
