

Letterhead of the Ministry of External Affairs.

General Directorate of External Service

General Sub directorate - Personnel

Madrid March 30, 1989

The Minister of External Affairs, given your background and experience and the aptitud you have shown for the translation of the English language, has considered it appropriate to appoint you as Sworn Translator for the translation into Spanish of said language with nationwide scope, having no salary nor emoluments except whatever amounts you are owed for your translations and which you are free to set at your discretion, and which rates you are required to communicate to the Office of Language Interpretation of this Ministry and the Provincial Civil Government.

The communication of your rates must be carried out each year during the month of January.

All of which, following the order of the Minister, I hereby communicate to you for your information and consequent effects.
