

To whom it may concern,

I am writing to recommend Irene Jie Angana for a teaching position at your company. She worked with me at a company before as an English teacher.

As a colleague, Irene was always reliable and organized – she was always the first to work on his syllabus and find the right teaching methods for each of his classes at the start of the year. She also readily led our volunteering activities and participated in seminars from our company.

Irene was one of our best educators, firm but always finding ways to engage students. Also, I've always put a premium on integrity and honesty and Irene never failed to deliver on both fronts. An example was how she handled a proffered bribe from a parent of a beginner student who wanted their child to get a mark they didn't deserve. Irene was discreet and polite with the parent, but she promptly declined the offer.

All in all, Irene is a delight to work with – a dedicated educator with a positive attitude. I wouldn't hesitate to work with her again if the opportunity arose.

Thanks,

Fatima Rodriguez
