

*Translational Genomic Research Institute
445 N 5th St, Phoenix, AZ 85004*

*Lloyd Allred
Dep. of Classical and Modern Languages and Literatures
Texas Tech University, P.O. Box 42071
Lubbock, Texas 79409/2071*

RE: reference letter for Katiuscia Siddi

Dear Sir,

I am very pleased to write a letter supporting Katiuscia Siddi for the position of Instructor of Italian at the Texas Tech University.

I know Katiuscia because I have been her student for 1 year before I moved to US. I needed to improve my English skills, so I decide to hire her as private teacher addressed by positive feedbacks from other students. In fact, she has developed a strong reputation among a large group of students for being able to teach English, French and Italian languages to people of all ages and different nationalities.

I was immediately impressed by her ability to connect with me and by her talent at teaching simple grammar and language concepts, as well as more advanced topics in a very easy way. Always on time, she was very accurate on preparing lesson and available on extra-lesson time when I needed further clarification. She was able to make every lesson intriguing because of the personalized content based on my interests and professional background. Thanks to her, my English level improved so that I was able to feel comfortable when I arrived to the US.

I have no doubts to say that Katiuscia is a careful, hard-working, congenial and intelligent person. For all the aforementioned reasons, I definitely recommend Katiuscia as a candidate for your teaching position.

Thanks for considering my opinion, and feel free to contact me anytime.

Phoenix, March 21st, 2016

Yours faithfully.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Ignazio S Piras".

Ignazio S Piras

*Ignazio S Piras – Bioinformatician II, Neurogenomic Division, TGEN
+ 1 601 481 3074 – ipiras@tgen.org*